in memoriam

THOMAS P. JOYCE

December 8, 1903 - August 26, 1952

Teacher of electricity in Belmont Vocational High School, inspirer and leader of youth, worthy associate and esteemed friend

principal's message

THE success which characterizes your present achievement now places you on the road traveled by countless others before you. You are faced with similar detours, blind-spots, and other factors to challenge your goal as useful and productive citizens. The progress, happiness and success of your journey will depend upon your reasoning powers, consideration for others, a good sense of values, and your enthusiasm to accept and discharge responsibilities entrusted to you. Moreover, you may draw upon the past for inspiration, and appraise the present and meet the future with determination, faith and understanding.

May you find the satisfaction of life in work well done, in service to others and in continued growth in knowledge and understanding of human affairs. Shoulder your responsibilities, accept your joys and your adversities with patience, with indomitable courage, and sterling character, and follow the highway to a successful future.

vocational director

Mr. Crowson

Mr. Crowson's Message

ONCE again a vocational class has arrived at the point of departure from High School into life in the broader fields of trade and industry. You who are graduating with this class have a firm foundation on which to build a solid, successful future.

To realize this success, one ingredient is essential above all else. You must be able to think and think clearly. Many ideas will be presented for your evaluation. In thinking them through, if you can separate truth from error, and then pattern your actions after the truth, happiness and success will follow.

May we extend our sincere congratulations and best wishes to you all.

Miss Cleary

As we hear the nostalgic strains of “Pomp and Circumstance” at one of the greatest events in our young lives, we realize that we are actually leaving Belmont High. Many scenes pass before our eyes recalling three wonderful years spent here and the friendly, helpful people with whom we met and worked. We sincerely appreciate the guiding hands of Mr. Higginbottom, not only our principal, but our friend; Mr. Kolouch, Miss Anderson, and Mr. Nagle. Praise is due also to those behind the scenes: the office staff, the kitchen staff, and the janitors. Our class is truly grateful to have had Miss Cleary walking beside us in everything we have undertaken, as an advisor and inspiring supporter. Along with our memories of fun, we find we have grown up — no longer bewildered sophomores, but now stately seniors, looking ahead to our places in the world.

class will

On this the third day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, being of fairly sound mind and body, we, the Class of 1953, solemnly bequeath these worldly possessions:

The Yearbook editors leave Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Brule for the benefit of next year's Blueprinters.

The first period Chem class leaves the lab to all future cookbook chemists.

Ginny Murray leaves her blonde hair to Nancy Lee Johnson.

Margie Sherman leaves the Glee Club piano to Carolyn Whitford.

Jimmy Polese leaves the hurdles to any grasshopper.

Annaliese Jutte leaves the memory of her charm with all of us.

The Vocs leave Mrs. Nugent a tool box to help her run the P. A.

Dave Hurley leaves Mr. Cowing to Jack Flynn.

Camille Celi leaves her jolly exuberance to Andrea Kazanjian.

Warren Farrell leaves his bashfulness to anyone who wants it.

Dick Hurley leaves the hope of another great basketball season with Rich Nelson.

Ralph Gifford leaves his treasurer's books and empty pockets to John Rooney.

Ursula Reidy leaves her sparkling smile to Carol Simpson.

The cheerleaders leave the thrill of the Tech Tourney to next year's cheerleaders.

Jim Buckley leaves his all-round good humor to anyone who's feeling low.

The females in Physics leave Mr. Libby a class of boys.

Don Yaceshyn leaves his brains to prospective N.H.S. members.

The Bluenotes leave B.H.S. for television, maybe?

Jeff Freeman leaves the "jinx" problem to the subsequent editor-in-chief.

Branson McKay leaves his racing forms to any avid fan.

Nancy Fisher leaves her beauty to Anne Freeman.

Marie Scarfo leaves her cute outfits to Carolyn Fantasia.

Miriam Turran leaves her giggles to anyone who enjoys the happier side of life.

Nancy Colby leaves her fabulous parties to another loyal sports' supporter.

Bob Edgerton leaves anyone of his instruments (he could afford to leave five!).

Eleanor Jones leaves her sweet disposition as an example to us all.

Martha Dixon leaves her red pencil to next year's literary editor.

Bill Kerr leaves his tennis racket to future champions.

French "fourites" leave their language to industrious students.

We regretfully leave Miss Cleary to her gym classes.

Thus are left a few of the many treasures the Class of 1953 possesses. Likewise, our class leaves . . . with eyes for the future and hearts for the past.

WITH relatively few varsity members returning, Belmont High's Soccer team ended their season with a record of four victories and five defeats. Highlights of the season were victories over Watertown, five to nothing and six to one; over Belmont Hill, two to nothing; and over Tufts freshmen, two to nothing. BHS suffered two heartbreaking defeats at the hands of their rival, Medford. They played excellent defensive ball, holding the opposition to an average of 1.7 goals per game. Outstanding players were the captains Richard Mixer and Pau IJurigian, who played brilliant soccer; and Jim Polese, who led the scoring with seven goals for the season. Coach Wenner turned out a fine team that was recognized for its spirit and good sportsmanship.

THE 1952 Belmont High Football Team, under the supervision of the new head-coach, Walt Roberts, played a lot of hard fighting football. Coach Roberts, met by an inexperienced squad, did an excellent job on all counts, although the seasons record of no wins and eight defeats certainly is not indicative of the team's ability. Injuries to Warren Farrell and Dick Brosnan before the season's schedule opened, and later to Jim Buckley and "Bobo" Carlo, plus numerous sprained ankles and pulled muscles, hurt the team.

Norm Purdy, "Bear" Agahigian, "Cheesy" MacIver, Tom McBride, John Rooney, and "Red" O'Connor, acted as captains during the season, though at the close of the schedule, the squad elected Norm Purdy their official captain.

Credit is due to the entire team, for they practiced long hours and played well in every game.

MR. Seaman's Cross Country Team, had a successful season, as they won with ease six out of nine dual meets. Belmont finished second in the Divisional, third in the Middlesex League Race, and third in the State meet—a sensational record.

Co-Captains Jim Cairns and Francis McNulty with Don Yaceshyn were outstanding as they ran with speed and grace to victory. A fast and high-spirited squad closed the season as they played host to the annual Cross Country Banquet for the Middlesex League.

GOOD spirit accompanied by great sportsmanship left an impression on all the opponents of the field hockey team. The squad's biggest rivals, Winchester and Arlington, defeated the team this year, but not without some real competition. The final record reads two wins, three losses, and one tie. Scoring for the team was done by Ellie Jones, Martha Dixon, and Janet Miller, with the entire team giving strong support. In every game, Miss Cleary's fine coaching, was apparent, for the girls played excellent hockey all season.

COACH Bennett's team beat Medford 4 to 1, rolled over Melrose 3 to 0, and tied Cambridge Latin 6 to 6; at the end of the season, the hockey team was tied with Newton for fourth place in the G.B.I. League standings. Belmont lost a coin-flip in the locker rooms which put them back into the second division and kept them out of the Met Tournament.

John Vigiolo placed first in the individual scoring in the G.B.I. League with a total of 17 points, and Ned Bunyon made it a close second with 15 points. Johnny was Belmont's only player to make the All-Star team of the League, although goalie, Martin Carlow, wings, Ned Bunyon and Gerry Howell, and defensemen, John Lanigan, and Bob Teevan represented Belmont on the second team. At the All-Star game, co-captains, Jack Ross and Don DiNapoli accepted for Belmont the Gordon Memorial Trophy for "sportsmanship and fair play". The hockey team, with Coach Bennett, proved the old adage—"It matters not if you won or lost, but how you played the game".

FIRST ROW: R. Piché, J. Polese, P. Jurigian, R. Hurley, R. Nelson, G. Campbell, D. Yaceshyn.
SECOND ROW: Coach Wenner, C. DiGiovanni, D. Dewar, W. Kerr, T. McBride, D. Hurley, L. Gunter (manager); T. Stitts (manager).

WENNER had another winner, and the Belmont basketball fans were roaring again. The '53 team, after opening the season with smashing victories over Waltham, Newton, and Brookline, their Class A rivals, continued in the win column and swept through the Middlesex League. With both fans and hoopsters at fever pitch, Belmont rolled over their arch rivals, Winchester—43 to 40. This thriller put BHS ahead one game in the league race, but Winchester and Belmont became deadlocked, when we tumbled to defeat in the Reading Gym. Belmont's "Fire House Five" again broke into the lead, as they trimmed Winchester for the second time 50 to 43. Wakefield posted the biggest upset of the season when, in the last league game, they stopped Belmont 56 to 53, and plunged the Middlesex League into a tie for top honors. The regular season games showed Belmont and Winchester each with 12 to 2 records, and both teams were invited to compete in the annual Tech Tourney. In the first game of this classic Belmont fashioned a 31 to 16 margin at the half and coasted 57 to 46 over the Winthrop quintet. The second game found us matched with Winchester, whom we had twice beaten, but who finally came out on top of a see-saw battle not only for a place in the finals, but also for the league championship. Winchester led at the half, however, Coach Wenner's team began to click in the second period and played magnificent basketball to tie up the score. Only three seconds remained as Winchester pulled ahead and won indecisively 50 to 48.

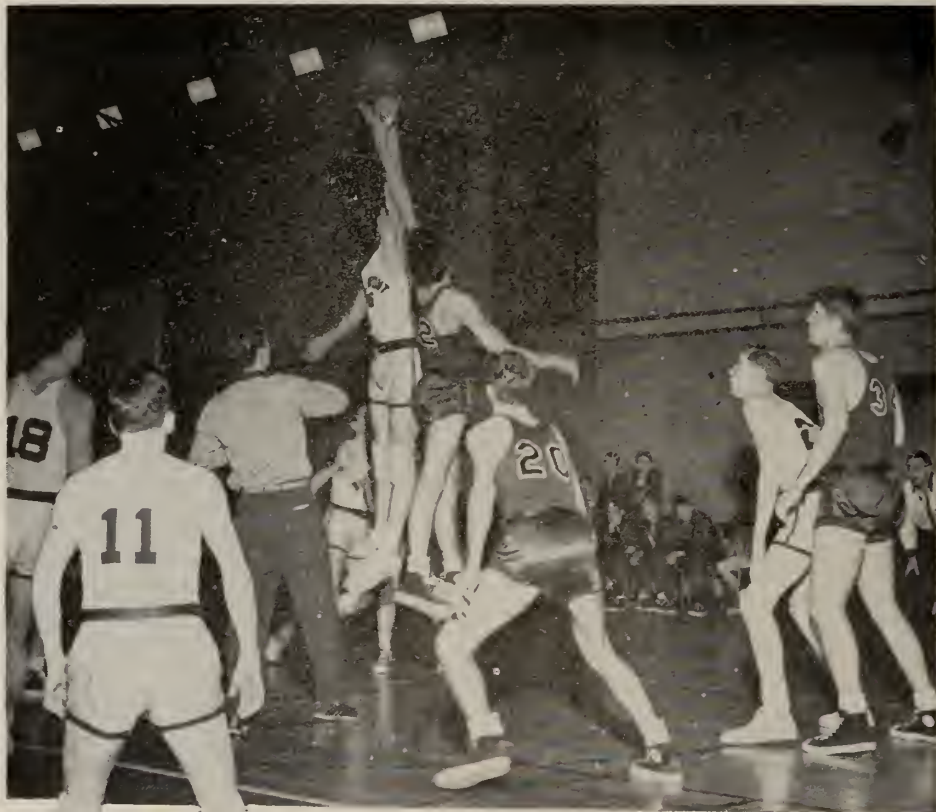

Coach Wenner

Captain Hurley

The backbone of the team was Captain Dick Hurley. He was high scorer with "Soupy" Campbell running a close second. Paul Jurigian, with his amazing dribbling ability, was the mainstay of the defense. The other regular members of our terrific team were Raoul Piché, Jim Polese, Rich Nelson, and Charlie DiGiovanni. Of value assistance were the following reserve men: Doug Dewar, Dave Hurley, Willy Kerr, Tom McBride, and Don Yaceshyn.

Our Basketball team and the great "Mel" Wenner will long be remembered by the class of '53, for to us — they are the champs.

SECOND ROW: Miss Cleary, S. Coit, J. Miller, T. Stella, J. Rahal, E. Clark (Manager).

THIRD ROW: C. Celi, D. Carrol, J. Bear, J. Casey, C. Simpson.

ALTHOUGH no varsity players returned from last year, the girls' basketball team finished the season with a record of two wins, three losses, and a tie. Miss Cleary's fine coaching was evidenced in the excellent teamwork that the girls exhibited in every game. Captain Pat Lynch, with Terry Stella, Janet Miller, and Sandy Coit did the scoring for the team, while "Stretch" Celi, Carol Simpson, and Dolores Celi handled the guarding positions. Keeping its spirit high, the basketball team displayed the good sportsmanship which is characteristic of Belmont High School.

SECOND ROW: P. DiNapoli, S. Snegeriff, C. Olive, K. Heanue, C. Bratton, E. Pennachio, L. Crowell.

COACH Seaman deserves to be congratulated on the splendid job he did with the newly-created indoor track team. Belmont placed second in the State Meet, only three points behind first place Dedham. In this meet Bob Edgerton became the state champion in the 45 yard high hurdles, while the relay team composed of co-captains, Jim Cairns and Bob Comeau, with Paul Kroeger and Robert Nordlund tied for first in their contest. Belmont got the rest of its points by placing second and third in several other events. In the B.A.A. Meet, Jim Cairns placed fourth in the 1000, Bob Edgerton, fifth in the high jump.

This year, the team established itself firmly and set a high standard for its posterity.

COACH Robert's biggest problem in his first year as Belmont's baseball coach seemed to be the weather. The April showers were not conducive to good baseball practice. The first few games were rained out; the team's first opponent was Winchester, followed by Lexington. Though they lost these two openers, the team improved as the season progressed. Reaching their best form by the middle of the season, were "Red" O'Connor, Charlie DiGiovanni, Dick Brosnan, Dave Hurley, Bob Masson, "Soupy" Campbell, Paul Cuneo, Neil Bellis, John Harrington, Raoul Piché, and Tom Grennell, who constituted the backbone of the team.

WITH the great Mel Wenner as coach, the track team proved a virtual powerhouse. Opening their season, they beat Punchard High easily. Five days later, they romped over Brockton, as the team won every event. Belmont played host at the Middlesex Inter-Class Meet, which brought together seven of the eight teams in the Middlesex League. Chalking up 134 points, our track team won first place with the nearest competitor holding 52 points. The rest of the season proved just as successful, the outstanding men being Captain Jim Polese in the low hurdles, the 100, and the 220, Jim Cairns in the 880, Don Yaceshyn in the mile, Jerry Hodder in the high jump, and the discus, Bob Edgerton in the high jump, broad jump, and high hurdles, Paul Jurigian in the broad jump, Paul Kroger in the shot put, Bob Comeau in the 440, and Dick Hurley in the 220. The whole squad did an admirable job as they exhibited skill, stamina, and speed to uphold the winning tradition of Coach Wenner's teams.

TENNIS is always a popular sport at Belmont High, but this year it seemed especially so, since an unusually large number of sophomores, juniors, and seniors tried out for the team. The mainstays of the squad, Marcia Lee Beardsell and Gail Sullivan, set the pace for the other players during a damp, but successful season. Meeting Arlington, Winchester, Lexington, Concord, and other rivals, the girls exhibited amazing skill and technique. Miss Smith, a capable coach, supervised every practice and helped the players improve their game.

FIRST ROW: J. Flynn, W. LeHoux, W. Hickman, R. Freedman.

SECOND ROW: Coach Nagle, P. Clarke, A. Basse, W. Kerr (Captain), M. Stoller, T. Stitts, S. Casson (Manager).

“P” OP” Nagle again produced a championship tennis team for '53. Opening their season against Cambridge Latin, the boys vanquished their opponents, 5 to 0. In their second match, Belmont edged Malden, with whom they were co-champions of the Middlesex League, 3 to 2. Therefore, the remaining schedule offered little opposition to this skilled group.

This year's team included standouts Tom Stitts, Manning Stoller, and Al Basse, but was ably led by Captain Bill Kerr, the Eastern Massachusetts tennis champion.

BACK ROW: A. Alizio, R. Kiley, J. Miller, B. Bonat (Captain), Miss Cleary, M. Midkiff, S. Wenner, G. Navarro.

FOLLOWING the April Vacation, the girls' softball team started preparing in earnest for its first game, scheduled for May 4. Spirits were not at all dampened by the showers that invariably began around 2:15. This year's squad worked toward an undefeated season and can well be proud of its record. Three returning veterans, Captain Beverly Bonat, Barbara Allen and Sandy Wenner, provided the experience which is needed by all athletic teams. Miss Cleary's excellent coaching helped to carry out another fine sports record for Belmont High. Whether winning or losing, the softball team played well and maintained a high standard of sportsmanship.

THE golf squad combined pleasure with competitive play and spent a profitable season under the direction of Coach Cowing. These skilled golfers beat Cambridge High and Latin 9 to 0 in the first game of the season; and during the rest of the year, the team made equally fine appearances. Captain Jack Ross and Ned Bunyon led the team in long drives off the tee and accurate putting on the green. Warren Farrell and the junior and sophomore members provided expert support in every game. Each boy, instructed by Mr. Cowing, had the grace and accuracy necessary for a good golfer.

cheerleaders

OUR cheerleaders won not only one, but two trophies for the school. In November, the Norwood High School football team sponsored a competition to find the best cheerleaders of 1952-53, and Belmont was the unanimous choice, then, in January, the girls traveled to Dedham High School to compete with the cheerleaders from nine other schools; again the maroon and white copped first place. The cheerleaders urged the teams to victory, but remained loyal even in defeat. Whether in front of the football stands, the basketball bleachers, or the crowd at the Tech Tourney, the group always maintained their school spirit. Many thanks to our cheerleaders, the very best.

student council

but according to robert's rules

THE Student Council sponsored five enjoyable assemblies throughout the year. In September, Robert Loomis showed an entertaining film; November, brought Duke Montague, Master Magician; Salon Rizk, author of "Syrian Yankee", spoke to us in January; Lloyd La Vaux, a concert accordionist, performed in February; and in March, we were visited by table tennis champions.

This year, as always, the Student Council members sold programs at football games, and helped worthy causes such as the Salvation Army and the Community Fund, by collecting money from the homerooms. In addition, the Student Council held two dances, the "Harvest Hop" and the "Frosty Frolic."

As he has done in past years, Mr. Kolouch kept the activities running smoothly.

citizens of tomorrow . . .

ANNUALLY the Belmont Woman's Club and the Rotary Club, two of the town's most outstanding civic organizations, choose a group of students from the senior class of the High School to become complimentary members. This year the girls chosen to be Honorary Members of the Woman's Club attended several teas and informative meetings. They particularly enjoyed the hobby show in which they displayed their various skills and hobbies along with the regular members. The Junior Rotarians were present throughout the year, at weekly dinners and meetings and, in this way, learned how the club operates. The outstanding event was the Rotary Club's twenty-fifth anniversary. The boys not only attended, but decorated for it and participated in it.

The students who were chosen this year are very grateful to the Woman's Club and Rotary Club for giving them the opportunity to observe such organizations, and to see how invaluable they are to the community.

ALTHOUGH the National Honor Society is one of the least pretentious organizations, its members have a way of making themselves heard around school. In October, the Society sponsored the annual Bob Clayton Record Hop, in March, the unique Flapper Dance, and in May, they held a Food Sale. All these activities were given to raise funds for a scholarship which is awarded annually at Commencement to a deserving senior. At an assembly in November, ten new members were inducted into the National Honor Society, and in April more students were elected to membership, but were received informally. Six of the members in March, took the rigid National Honor Society Scholarship Examination.

Guided by Mr. Meyers, the Honor Society proved outstanding throughout the year, according to their creed of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

THIS year marked the thirteenth anniversary of this club. Under the guidance of Miss Ames, the Bookworms' library has grown so that it now includes a number of books to suit the taste of every member. Possessing such a wealth of knowledge, the club offers its members a chance to read both the time-honored classics and the recent best-sellers at an amazingly low price. Since 1940, the club has increased its membership from nineteen members to approximately fifty members, and with the money collected from dues, it has purchased over four hundred books.

prospective homemakers . . .

THE Home Economics Club attempts to be of social and cultural value to its members and of service to the school. To fulfill its purpose the club engaged speakers and showed films to stress the importance of the various fields of home economics. Beauty, health, fashions, and cooking became the object of intensive study and observation, on the part of the Home Economics Club. Miss Kearney and Miss Smith proved invaluable as these well-groomed girls applied their domestic skills.

EDITORS and reporters alike begin pushing pencils and typewriter keys to compose and edit material for the next edition of our school newspaper, "The Star." That column on the front page, was once an idea scribbled on a piece of composition paper. After being edited and linotyped, it appeared with the rest of the paper on long pink galley sheets, which the editors and assistants cut and glued to a large dummy. The presses rolled—and soon after, members of the Publication Club distributed their production to the homerooms where students eagerly read the news of B.H.S. This year's Publications Club triumphed with the production of an eight page literary edition that received national recognition. The Publications Club succeeded in providing an opportunity to the creative student to see his work in print.

THE Latin Club, Summa, began the year in October, with the installation of officers in an impressive ceremony conducted in Latin. At the November meeting Dr. Barbara McCarthy, professor of Greek at Wellesley College, gave an illustrated talk on Crete and Greece. In December, the Saturnalia, the Roman equivalent of Christmas, was celebrated and the Alumni Program was held in April. Summa continued its sponsorship of a school in Akropotamias, Greece through Christmas contributions and the sale of B.H.S. book covers. Capable officers, with the assistance of many club members, and the able supervision of Miss Steuerwald, made this year a most successful one for Summa.

WITH membership limited to third and fourth year students, it was possible for Le Cercle Francais to be conducted entirely in French. The opening meeting in December was a Christmas party at which lovely slides of France, taken by Mademoiselle Bridey and Sam Casson, were shown. Adjourning to the library, the group played French games and enjoyed refreshments. The French Club was visited later in the year by Mademoiselle Fauve, a French instructor at Wellesley; they attended an extremely interesting film, "Les Jeux Interdits"; and also saw a travelogue of France — with English comments.

The year closed with the annual oral contest to determine the outstanding French students, this combined with refreshments and attempts at "parlezing francais" concluded a wonderful year with the true French spirit.

THE purpose of the Spanish Club is to offer its members the opportunity to understand Spain, Mexico, and South America, their people, their culture, and their history. The club saw a film entitled, "Wings Over South America," and also a full length feature picture. During Pan American Week, the members of the club attended a movie and lecture at B.U., a play at Babson Institute, and a dance at Harvard.

The club's activities, although few in number, proved worthwhile in that they made the members understand the Spanish-speaking countries.

dachshunde club

THE Dachshunde Club was a small group, but by utilizing the ingenuity of its members, it became the most original. For the first meeting the new members were required to wear "unusual" clothing. Boys appeared in mismatched shoes, two ties, and hair parted in the middle, while girls suffered through the day carrying parasols or wearing three pony tails!! At the spring picnic the German club had the pleasure of welcoming as an honorary member Annaliese Jutte, the German exchange student. This meeting lacked the usual formality, as Annaliese answered the innumerable questions of the enthusiastic German aspirants. The Dachshundes were indeed fortunate to have such a fine opportunity to learn of life in Germany.

ORGANIZED for debates and panel discussions, the Forum Club meets once a month. The main project which the club undertook this year was an assembly for the student body in which members joined history students to explain the purposes of voting and reasons for exercising the franchise. Following this, the entire high school participated in a mock election. Later, Elinor Stoneman, a former Belmont High student, gave an interesting talk on her trip through Europe last summer. Student Government Exchange Day found members of the club acting as hosts to students from South Boston. Such projects have inspired many students to join the Forum Club and participate in such activities under the guidance of Miss Anderson.

UNDER the leadership of capable officers, committee chairmen, Miss Loring, and Miss Richmond, the girls made favors for veterans' hospitals, knitted squares for an afghan, made birthday cakes and cookies for the men at the Murphy Army Hospital, filled Christmas boxes for children in Europe, and assembled an International Scrapbook about Belmont High. In addition to these worthy projects, the girls found time to donate their services at the Blood Donor Center and the Boston Lying-In Hospital.

Throughout the year many interesting programs were held. At a special meeting for officers and committee chairmen, Miss Daloma from Indonesia spoke about the Junior Red Cross Organization in her country. At another meeting, Mr. Chester A. Robinson, principal of the Kendall School, spoke about his trip to England.

During the year deserving girls were awarded special membership cards denoting five, ten, and fifteen (!!!) hours of service; all this in the name of the Red Cross.

HEADLINES flashed the news after the first big meeting of the Music Club. Both at this fall meeting and at the Christmas Party, talent of every sort was applauded by an enthusiastic audience. Traditional carols were sung with gusto at this December gathering.

Representatives from the club did an outstanding job as amateur disc jockeys on the Boston Ballroom, when they went on the air to broadcast the results of the annual record poll. The club lent a helping hand to other music groups by ushering at concerts and by giving a much-needed financial boost to the robe fund of the Glee Club. With Miss Anderson's friendly advice, the Music Club constituted a most popular feature at Belmont High.

THE A Cappella Choir, which was organized last year by Mr. Nettleton, consists of fifty members who voluntarily rehearsed at eight A.M. every Wednesday and Friday morning. Besides participating in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, they gave programs for the student body, the Parent Teacher's Association, the Belmont Woman's Republican Club, and for the very first time sang over the radio on Station WVOM. WHILE wandering through the corridors of B.H.S. during second and extra-periods every Tuesday, one could hear the one hundred and fifty voices of the Glee Club raised in song. Their repertoire ranged from "The Gandy Dancers' Ball" and "Joshua Fit de Battle of Jericho" to songs of a more serious nature such as "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and the traditional Christmas music. The Glee Club took a large part in the two concerts of the Belmont High School Music Organizations. At Christmas their singing accompanied colorful tableaux, and at the Spring Concert solos and mass numbers with the Band were featured. By working on advertising, decorations, and ticket sales, members played a vital part in both of these programs.

With the expert direction of Mr. Howard Nettleton, this organization is rapidly becoming recognized in state music circles. The Glee Club merits praise in all its successful undertakings this year.

"A" on the piano . . . o.k. tune up

SO starts every rehearsal of the Orchestra. This group is new to the high school and has gone under three names in the past two years. With two violins, a violincello, and piano, it existed as the String Group; more strings dubbed it a string Orchestra; and now with the addition of brass, woodwind, and drum sections, it has become a real Orchestra. Playing classical and semi-classical music, this year's group gave us a magnificent performance at the Spring Concert of the first movement of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony". The members of the Orchestra have worked hard to build this group, and recognition has at last been given to them.

oh, Belmont High that's it, just shout it out . . .

Time-out for refreshment . . .

RESPLENDENT in their new uniforms of maroon and grey, the Band this year made a fine showing, whether on the football field or on the concert stage. Loyalty appearing at every football game, this group performed both before the game and during the half, besides playing music from the stands during time outs. The pre-game performance saluted both teams with their respective letters, and then turned the greeting into "Hi". The drum majorettes executed many difficult routines, but attained their climax with colorful flag twirling. Unusual formations greeted the stands during half time—a banjo, revolving wagon-wheel, a jack o'lantern, which smiled and frowned, and even Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer.

A concert band appeared two weeks after football season, ready to take part in the annual Christmas Concert. At the Spring Concert, they were equally successful, contributing marches, overtures, and novelty pieces. The B.H.S. Band, through the efforts of its members and directors, is one of which the school can well be proud.

hold it okeh

ARMED with cameras of every size and description, club members stalked the corridors, hoping to catch a good candid shot, while more retiring photographers turned to nature for prize shots. Many of these enthusiasts submitted their best pictures in one of the two contests held by the Camera Club; others were content to discuss the methods of picture-taking, developing, and enlarging. All problems concerned with photography were brought up and talked over at meetings. With Mr. Clish's expert counsel, the members became proficient in their art.

ski club

with the greatest of ease . . .

THE excitement of the first early snow brought cheer to all the members of the Ski Club. After having been successful in teaching the non-skiing members the fundamentals of the art, some of the more ardent enthusiasts took a trip to the snow-filled mountains of New Hampshire for a few days of skiing. Formal meetings included movies and reports of conditions at major ski slopes. Along with pamphlets and other interesting articles on their favorite sport, members received newspapers published by the club and filled with the top skiing news of the day. Old Man Winter held out on snow this year but members, with the aid of Mr. Smith, found enjoyment in group discussions and "fireside" skiing.

out, out brief candle . . .

FALL found the prospective members of the Dramatic Club busily practicing skits and monologues, as they prepared for the membership tryouts. Approved by the club's officers and its advisor, Mr. MacClosky, they joined old members in a year of interesting activities. The senior play, a wonderful performance of Our Miss Brooks, starred President Mary Lou Kelleher, and featured many other aspiring actors and actresses. Throughout the year, the group held meetings at which members provided their own entertainment. In collaboration with the Belmontian Club they invited Miss Marjorie Shepherd to come and present some of her amusing monologues. This meeting closed with a scene from "Life with Father" with our own Mr. "Mac" as papa. The club afforded its members an excellent opportunity to become familiar with all phases of dramatics.
